My dear Sprawson Row

Some time back, there was a reference on a similar subject, (I believe in connection with an investment by one Maruisami Naidu) in which the Dewan had raised the question, as to whether such investments might be deposited in the Govt. Savings Bank — In reply, you seem to have consulted the Comptroller, & sent up his opinion to the effect that under some rule, the deposit may be received —

The Dewan wishes to see this file, before disposing of the present reference & I shall be obliged by your sending it up —

Yours Sincerely

Honoured Sir,

I the undersigned humbly beg to state that my deceased daughter Thiruvengadamma alias Rajama, in her last will, has endowed one hundred Rupees (Rs 100/) to the Diety of Srirangapatam for the distribution of Charity in her name on the anniversity of her death. She died on the day of the Gouri feast i.e. on the 3rd day of the rising moon in the month of Bhadrapada Corresponding to the English Month on August about the 24th 25th or the 26th day of the year.

She desired me to invest the amount in the Government Savings bank, with the instruction that the interest accruing therefrom Should be utilized for the performance on that day of the following Services – viz: Two "Astothavarams" as 5 as. each of Tulasi and Saffron to the God and Goddess respectively; Two annas worth of flowers; Two annas worth of betal leaves; And for the rest, fruit class.

pongal rice to be prepared and distributed among the people that assemble in the temple of Ranganatha Swamy on the occasion.

The above Sum is now with me and I am ready to invest the same in the Govt. Savings Bank at Srirangapatam Taluque in the name of the Deputy Commissioner and I solicit your honour to be kind enough to issue orders to receive the Amount in your honours office and send it over to the Taluque, for the due performance of the endowment to perpetuity. It is also requested that either myself or my heirs or any agent on my behalf may have the right to supervise the due performance of the endowment. It is also requested that your honour may be pleased to direct the Temple Authorities to draw the interest five clear days before the Anniversary so that Arrangements may be made for its due performance.

I Solicite that, may it please your honour, to direct the Amildar to invest this Amount on some safe Mortgage of land with possession, on which 9 per Cent interest, when such land can be secured, and the whole interest may be utilized on that that day for the purposes of Charity.
